PYT WORKSHOP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Enrolments are not accepted without payment.

- Membership is non-refundable.
- Once an enrolment has been confirmed, no refund is payable except in the events outlined below:
 - » The workshop or workshop season is cancelled by PYT: a transfer or credit for another workshop will be offered in place of the cancelled class. In the event that this is unsuitable, a refund will be given for the class or classes cancelled only.
 - » Withdrawal due to illness after term as commenced: Application for a refund will only be considered if made in writing within one month of term commencement. The application must be accompanied by a Doctor's Certificate. Refunds will only be made for the portion of classes unattended minus a $30 cancellation fee.
- Transfers are only permissible if notification is made prior to commencement of term. Transfers are only available from one term to the next and may only be made once.
- Workshop fees must be paid in full when you enrol as you are making a commitment to the whole term. No part payments will be accepted unless a specific arrangement has been made with PYT.
- The fee does not guarantee a place in the workshop.
- If all workshop places are filled a full refund will be given.
- We do not take telephone bookings as we require a signature on the enrolment form to indicate acceptance of these terms and conditions.

PYT does not accept any responsibility for any personal property left at the centre; nor does it accept liability for any personal injury.

I have read and understood the terms and conditions (above) of enrolment, and agree to abide by them.
